(Feel free to attach a typed response to these questions.)

1. Reflecting Christ in practice and in games is an important value for us at Central. What does it mean to be a Christian coach? What are the behaviors you would strive for?
2. Excellence in all we do is another important value at Central. What would you do allow players to grow to their potential?
3. Central mission statement speaks to "nurturing the whole person". How would you work with other important commitments that our athletes have such as academics, music, youth groups, class activities, and church and family? What do you think of Central's practice of allowing players a night off practice (usually Wednesday) each week?
4. What is your philosophy of coaching? Of practice? Of game management?
5. What coach in your life do you look up to and why? How have you incorporated these experiences into your previous coaching? Please note previous coaching experiences that have prepared you for this position.

6. How would you generate interest in your sport? How do you motivate players?

7. What experience and what plan do you have for dealing with parents, alumni, administration, or other "pressure" groups?

8. What experience and what plan would you have for managing a program? Organizational skills? Financial management skills? Communication skills?

9. What guidelines would you establish for your program/team?

10. Why do you want this position?

Information submitted on this application shall be kept confidential and used only to evaluate the applicant relative to a position on the coaching staff. Be free to answer all questions sincerely and without reservations.
