

Scholarship Information

Legacy Music Scholarship is being offered to students who would like to begin or are currently taking private music lessons on any instrument or voice.

It covers half of the cost of private lessons for eligible Central Christian Students during the school year.

When a scholarship is awarded, payment will be made by the school directly to the instructor, and the family will be invoiced for the other 50% of the cost. Applicants who meet all criteria will be awarded scholarships on a first come, first served basis.

How to Apply

Eligibility Criteria:

- The student has a sincere desire to learn to play any instrument suitable for them or to develop their vocal abilities.
- The student receives free or reduced lunches OR is the second or third child in the family taking private lessons at CCS.
- The student will demonstrate sustained effort and progress in ability.
- Preference will be given to students NOT taking violin, viola, cello, or string bass, since the Anna Knutson Memorial String Scholarship was established to fund lessons for those specific instruments. Students who play guitar may apply for the Legacy Music Scholarship.

For more information or to apply for the scholarship, please contact Hannah Steiner, Private Lesson Coordinator, at HannahS@CentralChristianSchool.org or call 330-857-7311.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Music Department

The Arts are an important component of Central's community experience and mission. Whether we are singing or playing an instrument, music provides an outlet of expression, and is a way we can praise and worship our Creator in a unique, personal way.

We are grateful to offer your student the opportunity to take advantage of this private lesson scholarship. Like the Anna Knutson Memorial String Scholarship which assists students who play orchestral strings, Roy and Ruth Steiner and their family have started a scholarship fund to support the continued growth of CCS' music program.

Central Christian's Music Department strives to engage, inspire and discover excellence.

Private Lesson Scholarship Information

Psalm 100:1 tells us to "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord". God created us with the ability to sing and make music and there are many instruments, along with our voices, that can be used to glorify God.

Music has been an important tradition passed along in our families and for us to our children, all four who are alumni of Central Christian School and were privileged to participate and develop in the excellent music education program here. Now, as adults and parents, they are blessing the community and church with their talents. We are thankful for our 12 grandchildren, most of whom are learning and playing at least two instruments and training their voices.

Music positively impacts a child's academic performance, assists in developing social skills, and provides an outlet for creativity that is crucial to a child's development.

It is our desire that all families can experience this opportunity and we want to provide financial assistance by making Legacy Music Scholarships available for voice or instrumental private music lessons. - Roy and Ruth Steiner

"Music is an agreeable harmony for the honor of God and the permissible delights of the soul." - Johann Sebastian Bach
